

South Georgia Gymnastics Company

Competition Team Contract

2026-2027

Parent Portal: <https://app.jackrabbitclass.com/regv2.asp?id=549983>

The following terms of agreement are set forth to provide a constructive, positive, and successful Competitive Gymnastics experience for every athlete and family involved with South Georgia Gymnastics Company.

OUR MISSION

At South Georgia Gymnastics Company, our mission is to develop strong athletes, confident leaders, and supportive teammates while creating a positive and encouraging environment where every gymnast can grow. Through dedication, teamwork, discipline, and sportsmanship, we strive to build not only successful teams, but also strong character both in and out of the gym.

PROMISE OF PAYMENT

The gymnast/parent agrees to pay all competition fees, choreography fees, music fees, hotel expenses (if applicable), leotards, practice wear, tuition, and all other related fees by the dates established by South Georgia Gymnastics Company.

Monthly tuition payments are due by the 5th of each month. All cards on file will be processed automatically on the 5th through the Parent Portal.

Accepted methods of payment include:

- Cash (in gym)
- Check (in gym)
- Card payment (in gym or through Parent Portal)
- Venmo: @southgeorgiagymnasticscompany

A 10% late fee will be added beginning on the 6th of the month for any unpaid balance. Families are strongly encouraged to maintain a valid card or bank account on file. If a payment becomes late and no payment method is on file, South Georgia Gymnastics Company reserves the right to require a card or bank account to remain on file moving forward.

We understand unexpected situations may arise and simply ask that families communicate with us regarding any financial concerns.

LEVEL PLACEMENT

Levels will be determined based on:

- Levels 1-3: Coaches' Discretion
- Levels 4-10: Gymnast must score state required score to advance to next level

Placement decisions made by South Georgia Gymnastics Company coaches and staff are final.

ATTENDANCE AGREEMENT

Competitive gymnasts are expected to maintain consistent attendance and demonstrate commitment to the gym and fellow gymnasts throughout the season. Because each element requires specific training and skills, absences can significantly impact the progress and success of the athlete and gym as a whole.

Weekly Practice Attendance

- All classes, rehearsals, choreography sessions, showcases, and mandatory practices are required.
- Gymnasts are expected to arrive on time, dressed appropriately, and prepared to participate fully.
- Excessive tardiness may be treated as an absence at the discretion of the gym owner or coaches.

Absence Notification

- Parents/guardians must notify the gym as soon as possible if a gymnast will miss practice or rehearsal.
- Illness, family emergencies, school-required events, and religious events may be considered excused absences when proper communication is provided.
- Vacations and non-essential activities should be planned around the competition schedule whenever possible.

Excused Absences (Maximum 4 Per Season)

Excused absences may include:

- Illness or injury
- School-required events
- Family emergencies
- Religious events
- Pre-approved academic obligations

Parents must communicate absences prior to practice whenever possible.

Unexcused Absences (Maximum 2 Per Season)

Unexcused absences may include:

- Forgetting practice
- Non-required social events
- Last-minute cancellations without communication
- Vacations not approved in advance
- Missing practice simply by choice

After 2 unexcused absences, consequences may include:

- Extra private lessons required at the gymnast's expense
- Removal from certain elements and competitions

Competition & Performance Attendance

- Attendance at competitions, showcases, choreography camp, and mandatory team events is required.
- Missing a competition or mandatory performance without prior approval from the gym owner may result in removal from competitions or ineligibility for future performances.
- Competition fees, tuition, choreography fees, and leotard fees remain non-refundable even if a gymnast misses an event.

The gym owner and coaches will use discretion when determining whether absences are excessive based on attendance record, communication, preparation, effort, and commitment level.

Injury & Illness

- Injured athletes are still encouraged to attend practice and observe unless otherwise directed by a physician.
- Observation helps athletes continue learning choreography, timing, and corrections.
- If a gymnast is contagious or running a fever, please keep them home until healthy enough to return.

Commitment to the Team

By accepting a position on the SGC Competitive Gymnastics Team, athletes and families are committing to being dependable, prepared, respectful, and supportive athletes. Attendance, effort, attitude, and teamwork are essential to the success of the entire program.

STANDARD OF PERFORMANCE

Gymnasts agree to:

1. Be on time for rehearsals, practices, competitions, and performances.
2. Dress appropriately for all practices and events.
3. Wear leotards, hair, and bows as instructed for performances & competitions.
4. Follow all rules set by South Georgia Gymnastics Company and competition venues.
5. Represent South Georgia Gymnastics Company with respect, positivity, sportsmanship, and integrity.
6. Give maximum effort physically, mentally, and emotionally during practices and competitions.
7. Be responsible for all personal gymnastics items including leotard, jacket, bow, grips, and warm-ups.

REASONS FOR TERMINATION

The gymnast will receive one warning if not abiding by the terms outlined in this contract. Continued violations may result in probation and parent notification. Further violations may result in removal from the competition team.

Reasons for immediate dismissal may include:

- Smoking, vaping, drinking alcohol, or use of illegal substances
